MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 1769.

CADIZ, June 9.

YESTERDAY ſailed from this Bay for the Havannah, a Convoy of Ten Merchant Ships, on board of which was embarked the Regiment of Seville Infantry, and Six Hundred Deſerters, who are condemned to ſerve Five Years in the different Corps of our Troops in America. Theſe Veſſels, which conſiſt of one Hulk, are laden with divers Sorts of Military Stores, intended for the Ship building at the Havannah. They are to be eſcorted beyond the Canaries by the St. Julian, a Spaniſh Man of War, which ſailed at the ſame Time with a favourable Wind.

CRACOVIA, June 17. The Sieur Pulawſki has lately gained a very conſiderable Advantage over the Troops of the Republic; 2700 of whom being ſurpriſed and made Priſoners by the Confederates, were afterwards incorporated into their different Corps, and took the Oath of Confederacy: By this Stroke, the whole Countries of Little Poland and Poliſh Ruſſia are expoſed to the Depredations of the Inſurgents.

LEGHORN, June 24. A Second Engliſh Ship arrived here the Day before Yeſterday from Porto Vecchio, having on board near 300 Corſicans, among whom are Clement Paoli, Count Gentili, the Sieur Roſtino, Capt. Carlo Salicetti, &c. with 16 Eccleſiaſtics.

WARSAW, July 1. The Troubles of this unhappy Country continually increaſe. The Conſtitutions have no Force, the Magiſtrates have no Power, and the Authority is no longer reſpected. In Great-Poland, Part of Lithuania and ſome other Countries, the Confederates do what they pleaſe, being no longer awed by the Preſence of the Ruſſian Troops.

July 5. According to Letters from the Frontiers of Moldavia, the Turkiſh Army is divided into Three Corps; the one, which is the moſt conſiderable, is encamped near Bender; the Second in the Neighbourhood of Jaſſy, and the Third not far from Choczim. We hear that the Confederates are again in Poſſeſſion of Czenſtochow, and have blocked up Poſnania. It is reported a Treaty of Pacification between the Ottomans and Ruſſians is now on Foot, and likely to be brought about by the Good Offices of the Court of Great-Britain.

July 8. Within theſe few Days the Confederates of Goſtyn repulſed the Ruſſian Colonel Wolkouſki, but General Apraxin having ſent the Colonel a conſiderable Reinforcement, the Inſurgents were obliged to retire; however the Chief, Stempkowſki, having joined the Confederates of Sochacrew, they fell upon the ſame Corps of Ruſſians, and after a great Slaughter, obliged them to take Refuge under the Cannon of this Metropolis.

An Account lately arrived that the Ottoman Army, conſiſting of 70,000 Men, under the Seraſkier Ali Pacha, had paſſed the Nieſter, near Mohilow, by which rapid Step the Turks have taken Poſſeſſion of ſeveral Ruſſian Magazines. The ſame Account adds, that the advanced Guard of the Grand Signior's Army, had ſurpriſed the Corps under Prince Proſorowſki, totally routed them, and killed the General: But a Letter received ſince, declares, that the Ottoman Horſe had only fallen upon a reconnoitring Party of Light Troops which the Prince commanded, whom they cut to Pieces, but that his Highneſs had the good Fortune to eſcape.

July 15. We learn from Thorn, that a Troop of about 200 Confederates having lately approached that City, and ſummoned it to take Part with them, the Magiſtracy fired the Cannon upon them, on which they inſtantly retired.

July 18. The Ruſſian Army, commanded by Prince Gallitzin, repaſſed the Neiſter the 5th and 6th Inſtant, after Gen. Proſorowſki had defeated 4000 Turks who oppoſed his Paſſage. This Action coſt the Turks 400 Men beſides thoſe that were drowned. It was at the Village of Uſcie that the Ruſſian Army paſſed the Neiſter, and entered Moldavia without Oppoſition. Gen. Renecamp remains on this Side with a Body of Obſervation, which encamps within a League of Kaminiec. Lieut. Colonel Drewitz, who eſcorted into Volhynia Prince Repnin, late Ambaſſador from the Empreſs of Ruſſia at this Court, is returned into Lithuania, where he is preparing, after being joined by ſome other Bodies of Ruſſians, to diſperſe the Confederacies that have been formed in that Province by the Inſtigation of the Two Pulauſkies. In the mean Time, Prince Gallitzin has defeated near Bialyſtock the Sieur Bierzynſki, who, after carrying off ſeveral Hundreds of the Militia of Prince Radzivill, was marching with all his Forces in order to engage in his Service the Troops that were there, which form the Guard of the Grand General Count Branicki. This Action, which happened on the 15th Inſtant, coſt the Sieur Bierzynſki the greateſt Part of his Troops, and all his Artillery, and Baggage.

July 19. Yeſterday a Courier arrived here with Advice, that the Ruſſian Army under Prince Gallitzin, after paſſing the Nieſter, had attacked and beaten, on the 3d of this Month, a Body belonging to the Turkiſh Army, commanded by the Seraſkier. The Action began at 6 in the Morning, and laſted 'til 9. The Turks being put to the Rout, and finding the Road to Jaſſy entirely ſhut up, ſome of them made their Eſcape to Choczim, and others fled towards Kalas. Theſe are the only Particulars of this Affair given by the Courier. He adds, however, that he was charged with a more Circumſtantial Relation, but that the Confederates took it from him. Theſe Circumſtances make many doubt the Truth of the Action, as they obſerve that the Confederates would alſo have ſtopped the Courier.

The ſame Courier adds, that a Body of Ruſſians commanded by General Berg, has likewiſe beaten the Tartars, and killed 6000 of them.

It is pretended alſo, that on the ſame Day, Prince Gallitzin beat Marſhal Bierzynſki, who had been forced to abandon his Artillery and Baggage; and that Lieut. Colonel Drewitz had likewiſe given a ſenſible Stroke to the Sieur Pulawſki.

On the other Side, the Confederates have thrown all Poliſh Pruſſia into an Alarm. They keep the Town of Thorn blocked up, and ſeem to have a Deſign of attacking Marienbourg.

According to Advices from Lithuania, Prince Radzivill, after being in Vain invited by the Confederates to join them with the Troops in Pay, has found Means to quit Biala, and to retire into a ſmall Town belonging to the Kingdom of Pruſſia.

There are alſo Letters which aſſure, that Count Potocki, Cup-Bearer of Lithuania, has obtained from the Porte the Dignity of Baſha of Three Tails; and that he is at preſent, as well as Marſhal Kraſinſki, in Podolia, with a Body of the Confederates, to which a conſiderable Detachment of the Turkiſh Troops have joined themſelves.

LONDON,

July 21. Private Letters from Leghorn ſay, that Paoli has been invited to accept of a conſiderable Poſt in the Emperor's Service, which, it is thought, that brave Chief will not accept of, as he ſhows an uncommon deſire to viſit his Friends in this Kingdom.

The favourable Reſolutions, ſaid to be now adopted with Regard to the Colonies, are wholly attributed to the Advice of a noble Lord; the Utility of which is ſaid to be acknowledged by his Brother-in-Law, who formerly was of a very different Opinion.

A Letter from Florence, dated June 26, ſays, "Yeſterday Evening General Paoli arrived here from Leghorn, and was preſented to the Count de Roſemberg, Prime Miniſter of the Grand Duke, by Mr. Mann, the Britiſh Ambaſſador at this Court."

The Crown Prince, a Daniſh Ship, is arrived on the Coaſt of Suſſex, from the Eaſt-Indies, and has brought Letters, which were immediately ſent up to London, giving (as is ſaid) an Account of Heider Ally's having re-taken all thoſe Places which the Engliſh had taken from him. Soon after theſe Advices were read, in the General Court Yeſterday, India Stock fell to 223.

July 24. Orders are given for compleating the ſeveral Regiments lately arrived from abroad to their full Complement of Men.

On Saturday ſeveral of the Nobility waited on the Earl of Bute, at his Houſe in South Audley-Street, to compliment him on his Arrival in Town.—He enjoys a better State of Health than he has for ſome Years paſt.

The immenſe Sums of Public Money, aſſerted in ſome late Petitions to be ſtill unaccounted for, remind us of a Tranſaction in the Reign of James II. An honeſt Quaker, being aſſeſſed one Guinea for Hearth-Money, (a moſt odious Tax, and aboliſhed at the Revolution) told the Collector that he would pay it to the King in Perſon, which he did accordingly, at his Majeſty's Palace. The King being pleaſed at the Man's Integrity, returned him Twenty Shillings, and put the other Shilling in his Pocket: "For (ſays the King) this ſingle Shilling is as much as my honeſt Collectors would have brought me.

By Letters from Conſtantinople we are informed, that the Populace there are very uneaſy about the Event of the War, and, as they look upon the Court of France, as the Authors of it, their Ambaſſador has met with ſeveral Inſults on the Occaſion.

The laſt Letters from Paris mention, that large Bodies of the French Troops had lately been ordered down to the Sea Coaſts.

The Friends of America ſecretly rejoice at the ill Succeſs we have met with in the Eaſt Indies, as the ſureſt and only Way of deciding our Differences and recovering our Trade with America.

July 26. Since the Arrival of a certain Nobleman, Bets are greatly in Favour of the preſent Miniſtry, as it is ſaid conciliating Meaſures are ſtrongly recommended to them.

It was Yeſterday currently reported, that Mr. Wilkes's Pardon is now in Agitation, and that the ſame would take Place in a very ſhort Time.

The Lords of the Admiralty have appointed Richard Peters, Eſq; to be Regiſter of the Vice-Admiralty Court of the Province of Pennſylvania, in America.

July 28. Yeſterday an Expreſs arrived in Town, with an Account of the Duke of Savoy, Harman, from Leghorn, being arrived in the Downs; and that General Paoli came Paſſenger in her, who immediately landed at Deal, and ſet out for London.

The following Toaſt is drank in all polite Companies: The unkennelling the Fox.

Notwithſtanding all the American Petitions were rejected by an auguſt Aſſembly, on the 22d of March laſt, yet the Americans intend to follow the Example of Middleſex, London, &c. and lay their Grievances at the Foot of the Throne.

It is ſaid, by thoſe who pretend to know the Secrets of the Miniſtry, that if the lenient Meaſures intended to be taken at preſent, ſhall not have the deſired Effect, in compoſing all Differences with the Americans, and quieting the turbulent Spirit that ſeems to prevail there, an additional Number of Frigates and Land Forces will be ſent thither early in the Spring, to reduce them to proper Conformity by coercive Means.

By Letters from Warſaw, dated July 1, we hear, that all the Detachments of the Ruſſian Troops, which were quartered in various Parts of Poland, have been called in, and ordered to poſt themſelves in the Environs of that City, to prevent any Attempts from the Confederates, who daily increaſe, and have lately carried off ſeveral Inhabitants who lived near that Capital.

Extract of a Letter from Hamburgh, July 7.

"Advice has been received here, that Prince Proſorowſki had been obliged to retire, having heard that the Turkiſh Seraſkier was arrived at Choczim at the Head of 45,000 Men; that the Prince, willing to impede the Progreſs of the Ottomans as much as poſſible, diſpatched a Meſſenger to the Sieur de Witt, the Poliſh Governor of Kaminiec, deſiring him to put that Fortreſs into his Poſſeſſion; but to his great Surpriſe received for Anſwer, that he, the Governor, had the Honour to belong to the Republic of Poland, and that the Garriſon had bound themſelves by an Oath, to ſuffer neither Ruſſians nor Turks to enter the Place.

"We have juſt heard that the Seraſkier has joined the Confederates of Bar, and was in full march for Prince Gallitzin's Camp, which was to be attacked on the other Side by the Grand Ottoman Army, ſo that a deciſive Battle ſeems inevitable."

It is ſaid that Paoli, who is arrived here from Leghorn, expreſſed his deſire, that he might ſee that remarkable Place, where the Sons of Liberty are ſent to, in this free Country, the King's-Bench; not ſo much on Account of the celebrated Patriot now immured there, but that he might contemplate the Spot, where Theodore, his Predeceſſor both in Command and Misfortune, drew his laſt Breath.

It is probable no public Notice will be taken, by thoſe at the Head of Affairs, of that Great Chief here; not that his Abilities are deſpiſed, but on an œconomical Principle; ſo that he will be left to be entertained and ſupported by his private Friends alone.

July 31. It is reported, that when a certain Nobleman lately arrived from his Travels, went to pay his Duty to a certain Great Perſonage, the latter caught him in his Arms as he was dropping on his Knees, and aſſured his Lordſhip, (or to that Effect,) that he rejoiced to ſee him, and that he was as dear to him as ever.

It is ſaid, that the Report of a Pardon being in Agitation for a certain patriotic Gentleman, is void of Foundation.

Aug. 5. They write from Rome, that a Paper had appeared there, which however had not yet been ſeen by more than Two or Three Perſons, ſetting forth the Rights of the Emperor upon the State of Genoa, and to which Pieces were annexed in Juſtification of its Claim.

Extract of a Letter from Warſaw, July 9.

"We are quite ſurrounded by the Confederates, ſo that we know nothing of what paſſes Six Leagues from this City. The Communication of the Poſt is interrupted, and it is by Chance when we receive any Letters from the Southern and Weſtern Provinces of this Kingdom. The Ruſſians continue to fortify themſelves in our Neighbourhood; and our Burghers have had Notice given them to prepare to receive Five or Six Soldiers in each Houſe."

The Subſtance of a late American Remonſtrance is couched in theſe Terms; "If Great-Britain herſelf is "virtually deprived of a legal Repreſentation, America "has nothing further to expect than being effectually "miſrepreſented on all paſt Complaints and Petitions "to the beſt of Sovereigns."

By the laſt Letters from the Cape of Good Hope, the French are ſaid to be withdrawing their Troops from the Iſlands of Madagaſcar and the Maurettas; and a Report is now current, that they have actually let out thoſe Troops, in the Nature of Auxiliaries, to a powerful Indian Prince at Variance with the Engliſh Eaſt-India Company.

Extract of a Letter from Dantzick, July 11.

"The Diſorders committed by the Confederates increaſe daily; their Approach ſpreads Terror and Diſmay on all Sides. Three Hundred of them are now actually at Olives, in our Neighbourhood; they have even advanced within a Mile and a Half of this City, and pillaged ſeveral Houſes."

Aug. 8. Yeſterday the Earl of Hillſborough ſet out from his Houſe in Hanover-Square for Ireland.

Orders are ſent to Ireland for all the Fortifications in that Kingdom to be repaired, and put in a State of Defence, which is to be done under the Inſpection of able Engineers.

Aug. 10. On Thurſday laſt the Earl of Bute and the Duke of Grafton had a Conference at the Earl's Houſe in South Audley-Street.

There is not the leaſt Intention of appointing Colonel Luttrell to command the Forces that are to act in India, as no Application has been made to him on that Subject.

Fresh Difficulties have arisen, we hear, respecting the Commission of Supervisors of the East-India Company's Affairs in India. The Ministry insist on seeing the private Instructions to the Supervisors, as well as the Commission.

All the Regiments of Horse, Foot, and Dragoons, are now arrived at their respective destined Quarters, for this Year; and those Regiments that have not their full Complement of Men, are ordered to be compleated forthwith.

WHITEHALL, Aug. 1. The King has been pleased to appoint Walter Paterson, Esq; to be Captain General and Governor in Chief in and over his Majesty's Island of St. John, and the Territories depending thereon, in America;

And Thomas Desbrisay, Esq; to be Lieutenant Governor of the same:

The King has also been pleased to appoint Elias Durnford, Esq; to be Lieutenant Governor of his Majesty's Province of West-Florida, in America, in the Room of Montfort Browne, Esq;

The King has likewise been pleased to appoint James Purcell, Esq; to be Lieutenant Governor of the Island of Tortola, and of his Majesty's Carribee Islands, extending from the Windward of the Anegada to the Windward of St. John de Porto Rico, commonly called the Virgin Islands, in America.

NEW-YORK, September 18.

On Monday last his EXCELLENCY Sir HENRY MOORE, BARONET, departed this Life in Fort George, after 16 Days Illness, and in the Fifty-Sixth Year of his Age.—We never had a Governor whose Death was more deeply and deservedly lamented.

He took the Command in November 1765, (a Month never to be forgotten for the Storms and Tumults excited by the pestilent Stamp-Act!) and has conducted himself, in an Administration uncommonly perplexed by the public Contests between the Mother-Country and America, with such a Degree of Wisdom and Temper, as to gain the Approbation of his Sovereign, and the Esteem of the People committed to his Care——Marks of distressing Affliction appear in every Countenance; for we had Hopes of his continuing at the Helm, 'til the dark Clouds that have so long impended, were totally dispelled.

He supported his Government with Dignity and Splendour; and having as just a Sense of the Liberty of the Subject, as of the Prerogatives of the Crown, his Administration cannot be impeached by a single Act of Oppression on the one Hand, or Infidelity on the other.—Just, fair, clement and generous to all; and affectionately concerned for the Colony, he seized every Opportunity to promote its Prosperity;—— and if in any Instance obstructed by the Malignity of the Times, no Member of the Community was more ready than he, to devise and execute Measures for gratifying the public Wish, and advancing the common Weal.

Temperate, polite and condescending, he was easy and accessible to the Meanest; and being indefatigable in Business, he passed through the various and arduous Duties of his Station, with a Celerity, and Vigilance, Activity and Perseverance deserving the highest Applause.

Inheriting an unusual Share of Affluence from his Ancestors, his Education was liberal, and so were his Principles.—He countenanced Merit, regardless of all narrow Party Distinctions, whether of a Civil or Religious Nature; and was thereby eminently qualified to govern a Colony consisting of Protestants of various Denominations.—He has attended Divine Worship at most of our Churches, and in no Part of his Conduct discovered an illiberal Partiality to any Sect, or that Contempt of all, so often the Foible of Men in elevated Stations.

But this is not a Time, to draw the Character of our late worthy Governor at full Length; we mean only to suggest a Hint to those at a Distance, in Justification of our Sense of the Loss, which this Colony has sustained, by a Calamity doubly severe from the peculiar State and Complexion of our public Affairs.—No Period will efface the favourable Impression he has left upon our Minds, and every future Governor will deserve Commendation, in Proportion as he possesses the Abilities and imitates the Example of Sir HENRY MOORE.

WILLIAMSBURG, September 14.

Last Friday Morning, about one o'Clock, came on at North-East a most dreadful Hurricane, attended with Rain, which came down in Torrents. It blew most violently from that Quarter until between Ten and Eleven o'Clock, and then shifted to the North-West, when the Storm increased, and continued, without any Abatement, until about Dinner Time. The Damage done in the Country must be inconceivable, for the Corn is laid level with the Ground, and much of it destroyed; the Fodder is entirely gone. What Tobacco was in the Fields is quite spoiled, and that in [illegible] greatly damaged by their falling and the De[illegible] which poured into them, which may [illegible] the Wheat. There was not a dry [illegible] many old Houses were blown down, [illegible] ber of Trees. The Woods are entirely covered with fallen Trees, many of the largest [illegible], which has blocked up the Roads, so that there is no travelling with Carriages. Farther up the Country the Storm was still more violent, most of the Mills being destroyed; we have heard of upwards of Fifty, between this and Newcastle.

From [illegible] all Craft there is driven ashore, and Capt[illegible] for London, lying in the Road, was obliged to cut away his Mainmast, but rode out the Gale.

All the Shipping and small Vessels at Norfolk are aground, many of them dismasted; some of the Wharfs are gone, and others much damaged.

The Shipping, &c. at York, have suffered greatly, The Captains Lilly, Waterman, Esten, and Hubbard, were all driven ashore. The Two First are now unloading, and will be got off; the other Two are already afloat, and have sustained little Damage, Captain Martin, for Bristol, was likewise driven ashore, but got off the same Day. Captain Banks, for Liverpool, is ashore below Wormeley's Creek, with Eleven Feet Water in his Hold, and it is supposed cannot be got off. Captain Hamlin, lately arrived from London, cut away his Fore and Mizzen-Masts, and was the only Vessel in York that rode out the Storm. The Sloop Nancy, Robertson, a light Vessel, was driven ashore below the Wharf. A light Sloop of Captain Whiting's is sunk on Gloucester Point. Another Sloop, James Mudie Master, for Lisbon, laden with Wheat, went ashore below Wormeley's Creek, but is got off, with little Damage. Four Sea Vessels in Sarah's Creek, opposite to York, were likewise drove ashore; one a Sloop, belonging to Captain Thompson, it is thought will not be got off. A Schooner belonging to the Eastern-Shore, Hancock Jacobs Master, loaded with Rum, is ashore on Colonel Digges's Marsh. A Sloop belonging to Mr. George Booth, with Two Hogsheads of Tobacco on board, drove to Colonel Digges's Plantation, and stove to Pieces. The Top of the Wharf was carried away, and drove against Mr. Jones's Store, which saved that from being swept off likewise. All the Boats and Country Craft are ashore; one of them, a Schooner, ran her Bolt-sprit into a Storehouse of Mr. Savage's. Several Chimnies, &c. in the Town were blown down, and the Wind-Mill at Gloucester Town. A Man bringing his Family down the River, put them ashore at Mr. Fox's; but going on board his Vessel again, to make her safe in a Creek, upon setting sail she overset, and he was drowned.

A Vessel from Norfolk, laden with Coal, for this City, was drove up to Jamestown, and stove to Pieces. A Schooner of Major Travis's, lying before his House, was drove from her Anchors, and went ashore on the other Side. All the Vessels up James River, as far as we have heard, are ashore likewise.

The Norfolk Packet was lying before Colonel Burwell's Ferry when the Storm happened. Her Skipper, when he found he could no longer stand it, slipped his Cable, and was drove by the North-East Wind several Miles up the River; but on the Wind chopping about to the North-West, he ran down to Norfolk in Three Hours, under his bare Poles. The new Packet, on her Way up, was drove ashore on Sewell's Point.

The James River Postboy, in his Way down, crossing a Swamp, was washed off his Horse by the Rapidity of the Current, but got hold of a Tree; and a Man hearing him call for help, swam into his Assistance, but could not get him out. He therefore went and brought more People, swam in again, and tied a Cord round him, upon which he was drawn out.

The Bodies of Three Negroes are come ashore a little below Lyon's Creek, with an Oar marked J. Goodrich, and a large open Flat is drifted ashore near the Mouth of the said Creek.

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 28.

Lately died in Kent County, BEDDINGFIELD HANDS, Esq; Treasurer of the Eastern-Shore, and one of his Lordship's Justices of the Provincial-Court of this Province.

On the 14th Instant died, the Reverend ALEXANDER ADAMS, in the Ninetieth Year of his Age, he has been Rector of Stepney Parish, in Somerset, Sixty-five Years.

Extract of a Letter from Mr. JOHN BUCHANAN, Merchant in LONDON, to Messrs. JAMES DICK and STEWART, Merchants in this City, dated Aug. 1, 1769.

"We have just received Advice, that the Gentlemen of Virginia and Maryland, are very much offended that some of the Virginia and Maryland Merchants, signed the Address of the Merchants and principal Traders of the City of London to the King, expressing their Abhorrence of the Attempts made to spread Sedition, inflame the Minds, and alienate the Affections of the People from his Majesty's Person and Government, which was notoriously done at that Time, by a Party, one of the principal Persons of which, is the Man, who by the Stamp-Act was the first Cause of all the Contention between the Colonies and the Mother-Country: And that Address was set on Foot in Opposition to that Party, who, give me Leave to observe, are no Friends to the Colonies. I have read over the Address again, and I don't find any Thing in it that relates to America; I dare say there is not one Man who signed it, but what is a Well-wisher to the Colonies; as for my Part, I have all the Reason in the World to be so, and I have always declared myself against taxing them, as a Thing unjust, upon the Principle of their not being represented. I have the greatest Regard for my Friends in Maryland, and considering how I am situated with them, I should be a Fool and a Madman to do any Thing that would hurt them. I have just been taking a Balance of my Books, and the Effects and Debts due to me in Maryland, including the Iron-Works, amount to no less than ——l: To think that any Man so situated, would designedly do any Thing to hurt the People of that Colony, is absurd. I had my Share of Trouble in getting the Stamp-Act repealed, and I am still ready to do every Thing in my Power to relieve North-America from their present Distresses."

TO THE PUBLIC.

Annapolis, September 26, 1769.

CAPTAIN ANDREW BRYSON, of the Ship Betsey, arrived at this Place last Week from Bristol, which Place he left the 18th of July, as appears by the Papers lodged in the Custom-House. Immediately on the Arrival of the Ship, we with some other Merchants in the City, made Enquiry what Goods were on board the said Ship, which was found to consist only of an Adventure of the Captain's, amounting to about 700*l.* Sterling, which Goods being purchased, and the Ship sail'd before the Resolutions for Non-importation in this Province could be heard of in England; it was our Opinion that Captain Bryson had a Right to dispose of his Goods: A few Days ago we purchased of him, Part of the above mentioned Goods, amounting to £. 317:10:1 Sterling Cost, amongst which were Goods to the Amount of £. 133 of those Kinds enumerated in the general Association entered into the 22d. of May last, as Goods not to be imported; and though they were shipped before their Resolutions could be known in England, yet as the Purchase is thought by many Gentlemen to be repugnant to the general Spirit of the Association, and of the Fifth Article in particular, we, as soon as we knew the Sentiments of these Gentlemen determined and declared our Resolution, to deliver the said enumerated Goods immediately to be stored until the Repeal of the Revenue Acts, as we are clearly of Opinion, that wherever the least Doubt arises, the Interpretation should be in Favour of discouraging any Persons whatever, from importing or buying Goods contrary to the true Spirit of the Association. We have therefore this Day of our own free will, delivered the above mentioned Goods into the Possession of Messieurs Lancelot Jacques, Charles Wallace, Robert Couden, John Brice, Joshua Johnson, and Colin Campbell, who have stored the same for our Use, and at our Risk, until they can be released agreeable to the full Intent and Meaning of the Association.
